Derek, it is with great appreciation I write this email. The "Generational Differences" presentation facilitated by Theresa House and Marsha Jackson on August 17, 2010 was on target for our needs and was well received by the 26 employees in attendance. After listening to informal discussion after the presentation, I think we all see ourselves in a different perspective after this thoughtful dialogue. Theresa and Marsha are excellent ambassadors for the Diversity Council and are to be commended for their very positive discussion of a topic that we all must embrace. Presentations of this manner certainly guarantee the continued success of our corporation's Diversity initiative.
